FROM FATHER TOM

Gathering in His Name

USING THE NEW TRANSLATION TO BETTER UNDERSTAND

By Fr. Thomas Chininis

Just under a year ago, the Archdiocese authorized and published an official translation of the Divine Liturgy. There have been other translations that have been recognized by the Archdiocese for years, one of the more common being the translation by the Holy Cross faculty that is used in our parish. These translations have never been given the moniker as the official, uniformly accepted translation of the Archdiocese. Deacon John and I began using the new translation at the beginning of the last year. At first it was somewhat cumbersome to use. Some of the wording and phrasing didn't flow easily off our tongues. We had to constantly check ourselves and pay extra attention to what we were reading and saying. Even today, the two of us default at times to more familiar phrases. These are issues that the clergy face as we integrate the use of the new translation into the life of the parishes. The faithful as they worship will for the most part not experience any real difference. Some may pick up on the use of some words. For example: the use of celestial and terrestrial, instead of, heavenly and earthly. One might hear, Altar of Sacrifice, instead of Altar. In both cases, no significant difference in meaning is indicated.

As I was celebrating liturgy a couple of weeks ago, a phrase in the new translation especially caught my attention. In the third antiphonal prayer we pray, "...two or three agree in Your name." Now I had always seen this phrase translated in scripture and in the services (we must remember that the format, hymns and prayers of the liturgy is scripturally based) as, "...two or three gathered in Your name." This is a popular and well known phrase from the gospel of Matthew (18:22) and is often used as an affirmation of community in Christianity.

For months now I had been thinking, why did they change translation of the word, symphonousin? Everyone uses the word, 'gather', why did the translators alter it? The Greek literally means agree. So the translators provided a more literal translation. This now forces us to look at the more common use of the word, 'gather'. Why was it translated in this manner?

For the early Christians, only those who believed in Jesus as the Christ would come together. They would go to worship in the Temple or synagogue and then gather together in the upper room for the Agape Meal, the sharing of the Body and Blood of Christ, fulfilling the words of Christ to, "do this in remembrance of me". This in fact is the basic structure of the Divine Liturgy. We gather to pray and hear the word of God, then, share in the Eucharist, the Body and Blood of Christ. Only the believers would gather for the Agape Meal. Only those who agreed that Jesus was the Christ, having offered Himself on the Cross and resurrected from the Tomb for our salvation, would gather. Because they agreed in salvation found through faith in Jesus Christ.

There is an additional layer to our understanding. Today, there are many denominations or branches in Christianity. We face these differences daily, among our friends, co-workers, and family members. The Church feels the pain of our separations and differences and, by the grace of God, constantly works toward reconciliation with our fellow Christians. We work toward the unity of the faith in our parish, Metropolis, Archdiocese, and Patriarchate. One marvels and is hopeful in the dialogue and brotherly affection of the Ecumenical Patriarch and the Pope of Rome. One marvels and is hopeful as we embrace families within our parish who have family members who participate in sister denominations that one day we will be united as one.

This at times is painful and is the result of our broken humanity today. As Orthodox Christians, we have learned, only those who are baptized or christmated into the Orthodox faith are permitted to approach to receive the Eucharist. Though other denominations may welcome us to receive the Eucharist with them, we should not participate. Many of these denominations desire to use the Eucharist to cover up our differences of belief in hope of unity. The Orthodox Church shares the belief that the Eucharist as the ultimate expression of unity.

This is a long footnote that leads us back to the new translation. You see, it is not simply that, 'two or three gather in His name', it is that we agree in faith, are united in faith and beliefs and hold to the fullness of community as, 'two or three agree in His name.' While we welcome non-orthodox to worship with us and embrace them with love, we call the faithful to approach the Chalice, 'with the fear of God, in faith and in love,' thus completing the prayer of the, 'two or three (who) agree in Your name.'

PARISH COUNCIL NEWS

Parish Council Report

On Sunday, December 10th the Transfiguration community held elections for the 2018 Parish Council. We congratulate William Arvanites, Redvers Curry, James Demetri, Corrine Dubay, and Niclis Kouloungis who were nominated and elected for two years term to the Parish Council. They will join the remaining 6 individuals who are entering their final year of their two year term to form the full Council. One vacant seat remains that will be filled by the 2018 Parish Council at their first regular meeting in January.

Having received the ratification of the elections from the Metropolis, the 2018 Council received their affirmation of office on Sunday, January 7, administered by Father Tom. Following the oath, they gathered and elected the 2018 officers:

President, Olivia Sintros; Vice-President, Costas Tsioulis; Secretary, Amanda Apostolou; Treasurer, Marc Gulezian; and Asst. Treasurer, Niclis Kouloungis.

We thank Christian Zouzas and Kon Kalabokis, who chose not to run for re-election, for their tenure on the Parish Council and for their leadership and stewardship for our community.

Parish Council Report

NOTES FROM THE DECEMBER MEETING

by Amanda Apostolou, Parish Council Secretary

The Parish Council met on December 5th for its regular monthly meeting. Following are the main topics of discussion and actions taken.

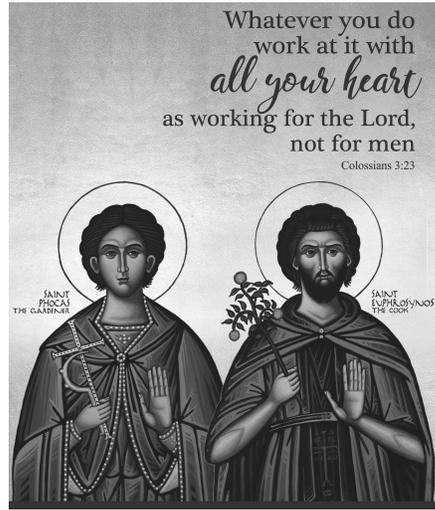

- In continuation of the discussion pertaining to the financial issues at the Archdiocese, Fr. Tom offered a brief overview of the recent events and how they addressed some of the concerns expressed at the previous meeting.
- No financial report was offered
- Fr. Tom reviewed the upcoming services on and around Christmas and the responsibilities of the Parish Council during the services.
- The Oath of Office will be January 7.
- There was a general discussion about ongoing projects and their status providing information for the new Council that will take office in January.
- Minutes of the meeting were taken by Olivia Sintros.

Stewardship 2018

“Whatever you do, work at it with All Your Heart”

One day, a person complained to his priest that the Church and Christianity is one continual “give, give, give.” To which the priest replied, “Thank you very much for the finest definition of Christianity I have ever heard.

You’re right, Christianity is all about a constant, “give, give, give.” God giving His only Son to the world to show His unconditional love. His Son Jesus giving His life on the cross to forgive our sins and destroy death. Then our Lord’s disciples giving all they had to make sure God’s Good News of love was preached to all people everywhere. They not only gave away their homes and businesses, but even gave up their lives as martyrs in gratitude to God! These followers of Christ show us true stewardship and how to live by St. Paul’s words, “Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart as working for the Lord, not for men.”

2017 Stewardship	as of 12/31/17
Participating stewards	297
Total pledged	$174,000
Received to date	$165,130*
Budgeted stewardship goal	$165,000

* Amount received toward Stewardship 2017 exceeded the budgeted goal.

PARISH GROUPS

Philoptochos Society Report

by Ellen Dobi,
Philoptochos Society President

Happy New Year to all our Transfiguration Church Family! The holidays brought a flurry of activity with programs and events to brighten the season for those in need. With the New Year now upon us, we turn to our Membership Drive. Each parish woman will receive an invitation to join or continue membership in Philoptochos. I am so grateful to our current membership for your support and participation. Each and every contribution is needed and highly appreciated. I welcome and encourage new members to make this the year you join. Together we enjoy friendship and camaraderie and collectively aid those in need to make a difference. Philoptochos is the philanthropic arm of the Greek Orthodox Church and we would love every woman in our parish to be a member of our chapter.

Fundraising:

Christmas Card: Thank you to Corrine Dubay for coordinating the Transfiguration Family Christmas Card again this year. Many thanks to all parishioners for supporting this Philoptochos endeavor. The proceeds from this project are earmarked for our philanthropic missions.

We also thank Arthur and Regina Dabilis and Andrew and Thelma Coravos for their donations received after the card had gone to print.

Annual Benefit Tea: The Tea was enjoyed by 125 Philoptochos members from many area churches along with relatives and friends. We were honored to have Elaine Zetes, our new Metropolis President, speak to us. All enjoyed the entertainment of Joey Be Bop and there were many excited winners of the raffle items.

Vasilopita and Family Dinner: Our traditional Vasilopita / Gold Coin celebration and Family Dinner will be held on Sunday, January 14th. Father Tom will cut the parish ministries' "Vasilopita" upstairs after Liturgy. Then lunch will be served downstairs and the Vasilopita pieces with the hidden gold coin will be distributed.

Outreach:

Visiting Angels: Our "Visiting Angels" are continuing visits to nursing homes and shut-ins. Please contact Christine at (978) 265-7249 or the church office to offer your time to visit.

House of Hope: We thank the servers who have stepped in to continue this ministry. We have volunteers through June. If you would like to volunteer for next season – starting in September – contact Cindy Rios at cerios3@hotmail.com or 978-459-1897.

Family Literacy Program: As we clean out our children's bookshelves after Christmas, please consider placing gently used books in our book collection bins. The goal is to collect as many books as possible for the children at a local Lowell elementary school.

Acknowledgements:

Christmas Decorations: Many thanks to Marc Gulezian and his team for decorating the church so beautifully for the Christmas season. Through your generous donations received during our flower collection in the spring, we are able to decorate the church all year long.

Coming Attractions:

Membership: The membership package will be in the mail soon. Every woman over the age of 18 is welcome to become a member. Please consider becoming a member in 2018.

Frequently asked questions:
I don't have much time right now so what can I do as a new member?

Step 1 is pay your stewardship – and include a donation to assist with our ministries.

I could possibly help on an intermittent basis, what would I do?

When you sign up, include your email. When time or talent is needed (dessert for a meal, sorting books for our Literacy Program, working the Pastry booth at the Festival or helping to make koulourakia or baklava under direction of our master baker) I send out an email asking for assistance. You can decide what you are able to do based on your schedule.

Also, read this article in the TransAGram. It provides information on what activities have gone on in the past and what is coming in the future. Contact numbers are usually given – if you have questions, ask. If there’s no number, reach out to me. If you have any questions regarding membership, please do not hesitate to contact our Membership Chair, Daphne Easton, at daphneeaston1@yahoo.com or 978-251-8395.

Next Meeting: Our next meeting will be held on Saturday, February 3rd, at 9:30 AM. We will enjoy our traditional “Heart Healthy Brunch” prepared by our hostess Susan Mitchell, followed by our business meeting and speaker.

Go Red Sunday,

Feb. 4th: In keeping with the National American Heart Association awareness initiative and supported by the National Philoptochos Society, parishioners are encouraged to wear red as a symbol of support towards awareness of heart disease.

Sunday School News

by Connie Gkolias, Sunday School Director

We congratulate all the Sunday School students for their wonderful presentation of our annual Christmas Pageant. The pageant reminds us of the true meaning of Christmas, the birth of our Lord. We should all be very proud of them. Great job!

On behalf of the Sunday School staff we want to wish everyone a happy, healthy, and prosperous new year. This is a wonderful time for all of us to make a very important new years resolution: Let's get our children to church by 9:30am so they can enjoy and learn from the Liturgy and hear Father Tom's children's sermon and then participate in their Sunday school class. We want them to enjoy every minute of their class time. We look forward to seeing the children on Sundays.

Choir News

by Marc Gulezian, Organist

As we begin a new calendar year we'd like to thank the members of the choir for singing so beautifully to the Glory of God throughout the year, and especially during our Christmas season! We are so fortunate to have such dedicated members who come up to the loft and pour their hearts out in song, and we welcome anyone to come join us at any time. If you like to sing and have always wanted to try being a part of the choir then now is the time! Most of the songs have Greek phonetics, so you don't have to be able to read Greek, and we welcome whatever time commitment you can afford to give.

For all those young people out there, when you come to church come on up and join us for a little while! We'd love to have you sing with us.

Happy New Year to everyone and may God grant you good health in 2018!
